Super Stakes Classic Open

Featuring a total purse of $2.8 million, this year's Super Stakes is kicked off by cutting's seasoned veterans, including the 2004 Open champion Playin Tag, owned by Sue Barry, and 2005 Open reserve champion and Open Gelding Stakes champion Rockin By Choice.

Playin Tag, by Playgun, works twelfth in today's first bunch (rider not assigned at press time).

Rockin By Choice, by SR Instant Choice, also winner of last year's NCHA Derby, is on tap in tomorrow's fourth bunch with Randy Holman, for owner Sandy Sabey.

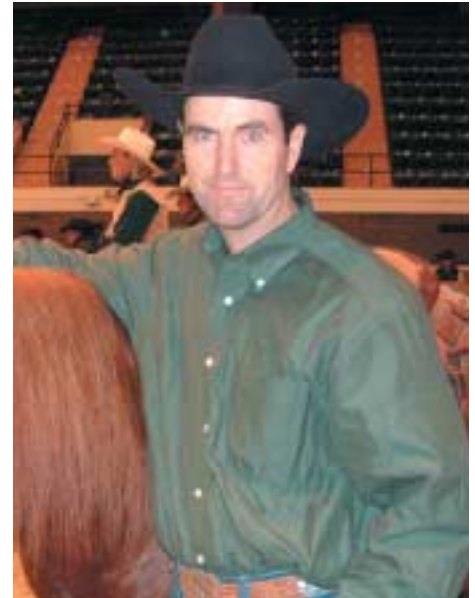

Paul Hansma, who rode Rockin By Choice last year, is today's first rider on the Dual Pep daughter Sultress, owned by Jack and Susan Waggoner.

Tommy Marvin, winner of the 2005 NCHA Futurity on Highbrow Supercat, by High Brow Cat, is also up in the first bunch riding Smart Jerry for D.A. and Linda Davis.

Smartys Shadow, 2005 Super Stakes Classic reserve champion and, most recently, Memphis Futurity Classic reserve champion under Brett Davis, shows as the last horse in today's first bunch. The Smart Lil Scoot son is owned by his breeder, S & S Farms.

Memphis Futurity Non-Pro Classic for Nancy Graham, is the first horse in today's third bunch. The Nitas Wood son will be ridden by Bubba Matlock Widows Intentions, comes into today's fourth set off of a championship win 10 days ago at the 2005 Eastern Nationals in Jackson, MS.

The 6-year-old son of Widows Freckles, ridden by Austin Shepard for Jim Langdale, was reserve champion of the 2004 NCHA Open Gelding Stakes and the NCHA Open Derby. Langdale, who will ride the gelding in the Non-Pro Super Stakes Classic, won the 2005 NCHA Amateur Futurity on Red Money Merada.

Quintan Blue, 2004 NCHA Open Futurity reserve champion and 2005 NCHA Non-Pro Derby winner, is the last horse to work in today's fourth bunch. The 5-year-old daughter of Mecom Blue is ridden by Roger Wagner for Jim Vangilder.

Nurse Elaine, 2003 NCHA Futurity Non-Pro co-reserve champion with Linda Holmes, is the fourth performer in the sixth set. The Peptoboonsmal daughter will be ridden for Holmes by Corey Holden.

PRF Playboys Pep, Lewie Wood's 2004 NCHA Non-Pro Derby reserve champion, also shows in today's sixth bunch.

Cowcattin, co-champion of the Memphis Futurity Classic with Kobie

Wood, works late in tomorrow's fifth bunch. The 5-year-old Cattin son is owned by Cotton and Davis.

Reys Dual Badger, owned by S & S Partners and co-champion of the Memphis Futurity Classic with Cowcattin, shows tomorrow in the seventh bunch under Darren Simpkins. Simpkins also rode the 6-year-old Dual Rey son as co-champion of the Bonanza Classic which concluded last week.
