

Todd Drummond Memorial Award

Nomination form

Nomination - Each National Cutting Horse Association affiliate has the opportunity to nominate one outstanding youth member who will be honored annually. The youth member will be recognized for scholastic, extracurricular activities, and cutting horse involvement. We encourage all affiliates to participate in the nomination process.

Selection - The NCHA President will appoint a three-member committee to review all nominations. The committee will then recommend a maximum of three (3) nominees to the executive committee who will then chose the award winner.

Recognition - During the NCHA World Championship Futurity the Todd Drummond Award winner will be honored and presented a custom designed trophy buckle.

Deadline - The nomination deadline is October 1 each year.
