Modine Smith Humanitarian Award Nomination Form

Purpose: Established in 2012, the Modine Smith Humanitarian Award was created in honor of philanthropist, volunteer and humanitarian, Modine Smith. Her unfaltering support of the NCHA and NCHA Foundation was awe inspiring to all who had the privilege to know her. Smith's steadfast contributions helped shape and secure the future of the NCHA and the NCHA Foundation, and both organizations are better because of her inspiring efforts.

This award is given annually to a person who displays unwavering support of the NCHA and the NCHA Foundation by continuously working to enhance the associations past, present and future. Each year, the recipient of the Modine Smith Humanitarian Award is presented a glass plaque during the NCHA World Championship Futurity.
